The Code of Conduct for Members of Quedgeley Town Council

Prepared pursuant to Chapter 7 of the Localism Act 2011

Part 1

1. Purpose of the Code

1.01 The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to assist Members (including co-opted Members) in the discharge of their obligations to the Council, their local communities and the public at large by:

- a) setting out the standards of conduct that are expected of Members and co-opted Members of the Council when they are acting in that capacity, and in so doing
- b) providing the openness and accountability necessary to reinforce public confidence in the way in which Members perform those activities.

2. Scope of the Code

2.01 The Code applies to Members in all aspects of their activities as a Member, including when acting on Council business or when otherwise purporting to act as a Member and when attending informal meetings with other Members and/or officers relating to the discharge of the Council's functions. It does not seek to regulate what Members do in their purely private and personal lives.

2.02 The obligations set out in this Code are complementary to those which apply to all Members by virtue of the procedural and other rules of the Council and the rulings of the Chair

3. Public Duties of Members

3.01 Members have a duty to uphold and comply with the law, including the general law against discrimination and the requirements of the Localism Act 2011, and to act on all occasions in accordance with the public trust placed in them.

3.02 Members have an overriding duty to act in the interests of the Town as a whole, but also have a special duty to represent the views of the residents and communities of their ward.

4. General Principles of Conduct

4.01 In carrying out their duties in exercising the functions of their Council or otherwise acting as a Councillor, Members will be expected to observe the following general principles of conduct identified by the Committee on Standards in Public Life in its First Report as applying to holders of public office. These principles will be taken into consideration when any allegation is received of breaches of the provisions of the Code.

a. Selflessness

Holders of public office should take decisions solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.

- b. *Integrity
Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might influence them in the performance of their official duties.
- c. *Objectivity
In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.
- d. *Accountability
Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office.
- e. *Openness
Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all the decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands.
- f. *Honesty
Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest.
- g. *Leadership
Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example.”

5. Expectations of Conduct
